

20 Kg Gold Worth 6.73-Crore Smuggled From Myanmar Seized In West Bengal

In this financial year, the DRI has seized about 415 kg of gold worth Rs. 130 crore from across West Bengal and northeast.

All India | Indo-Asian News Service | Updated: February 07, 2019 02:23 IST

PROMOTED

20 LED Bright Outdoor Security Solar Powered Spotlight

₹ 349

a

Police seized 120 gold biscuits, weighing 19.92 kg and valued at Rs. 6.73 crore. (Representational)

Kolkata:

Authorities seized nearly 20 kg gold worth Rs. 6.73 crore from West Bengal's Howrah, allegedly smuggled into the country from Myanmar. Directorate of Revenue Intelligence officials have arrested two persons in the matter.

Police seized 120 biscuits of foreign-origin gold, weighing 19.92 kg and valued at Rs. 6.73 crore in the matter.

In this financial year, the DRI has seized about 415 kg of gold worth Rs. 130 crore from across West Bengal and northeast.

The seized gold is believed to be smuggled into India's from Bangladesh, Myanmar, Nepal, Bhutan and China.