CENTRAL BOARD OF EXCISE AND CUSTOMS

New Delhi, the.....²⁰⁰.....
5th December, 2007

Dear Chief Commissioner

Sub: Appointment of Counsels by Central Board of Excise & Customs for constituting a panel to defend the cases relating to indirect taxation before various High Courts - Reg.

1. Central Board of Excise & Customs has been recently assigned the powers by Ministry of Law & Justice to appoint Standing Counsels for constitution of panel to defend the cases relating to indirect taxation before the various High Courts. This has been a long pending demand of the Central Board of Excise & Customs with the Law Ministry and as a result of continuous efforts and persistence, the Law Ministry has acceded to our request.

2. Central Board of Excise & Customs in consultation with the Ministry of Law & Justice has prepared the guidelines governing the manner of appointment of Counsels and the various terms and conditions of their appointment. The guidelines are enclosed as Annexure 'I' & 'II'.

3. Looking to the fact there are more than one Chief Commissioner within the jurisdiction of the various High Courts, Committees of Chief Commissioners have been formed for the purpose of examining the suitability of the Counsels applying for appointment for a particular High Court and sending self contained recommendations to the Board for constitution of panel. The Committee of Chief Commissioners constituted for this purpose is enclosed as Annexure 'A'. The Committee of Chief Commissioners duly headed by the senior most Chief Commissioner may call for the names from the Counsels by way of advertisement in the leading newspapers as per the procedure and or through Bar Association of the respective High Court.

4. The number of Counsels who would be handling the revenue cases before each High Court has been tentatively fixed and is enclosed as Annexure 'B'. The number of Junior Standing Counsel and Senior Counsels has also been worked out. However the Chief Commissioners are at liberty to change the composition depending upon the nominations received and the categories to which they fall and give adequate justification thereto.

5. The work relating to formation of the panel of Counsels should be completed by 15.1.2008. The Chief Commissioner, heading the Committee should send a self contained proposal addressed to the undersigned in terms of the procedure contained in the guidelines governing the manner of appointment of Counsels and their terms and conditions.

With best wishes.

Yours sincerely

- (vii) furnish to the Department monthly statement about the cases represented by him before the High Court or any other authority.
- (viii) perform such other duties of legal nature, which may be assigned to him by the Department.

8. Right to private practice

The Counsel will have the right of private practice, which should not however, interfere with the efficient discharge of work of the Department but he shall not advise, hold briefs or appear against the Department before any authority, tribunal or court in matters under the statutes relating to indirect taxes.

7. Retainership

The senior Standing Counsel and Standing Counsel will be entitled to a Retainership of Rs. 6,000/- per month (which includes charges for staff, office rent, postage and all other establishment charges).

8. Clerkage

Clerkage at the rate of 10% of the hearing fee subject to a maximum of Rs.3,600/- in a case or batch of cases before the High Court.

9. Out of pocket expenses

The amount required for court fees at the time of filing a case and other miscellaneous expenses should be paid to the Counsel in advance by the Commissioner concerned. An account of the expenses incurred should be rendered to the Commissioner while presenting the final bill.

10. Perquisite

The reimbursement of telephone expenditure, subject to a maximum of Rs. 1,000/- per month, shall be made by the Commissioner for calls that have been made in connection with Departmental litigation matters only.

11. For appearance before any other Courts, CESTAT, BHR /AHR/ DRT/other Tribunals and other Statutory bodies and authorities:

(a) at headquarters: same as payable for appearance before the High Court.

(b) out of headquarters: when the Counsel is required to go out of headquarters in connection with any litigation matter e.g. for conference with a Senior Counsel/ Special Counsel or with the Law Officer or for appearance in any Courts/Tribunal/other Statutory Bodies etc. outside the headquarters, he will be entitled to a daily fee of Rs.3,600/- per day for the days of his absence from the Hqs. including the days of departure from, intervening holidays and arrival back at the headquarters. However, no fee will be paid for the day of departure if he leaves headquarters after court hours and for the date of arrival if he arrives at the headquarters before the court hours.

(c) travel/hotel expenses: in addition to the daily fee, the Counsel will be entitled to travel expenses for travel by air (economy class) or first class AC by train. Road mileage for the journey from his headquarters to the airport/railway station and vice versa and from the airport/railway station to the place of his stay out of headquarters and vice-versa will be paid at the rates admissible to Class I officers of the Central Government (having basic +NPA +SI in the pay range Rs. 8000/- to Rs. 16399/-). He will also be paid a lump-sum amount of Rs. 600/- as conveyance charges for performing local journey while outside the headquarters. He will also be entitled to actual expenses for stay in hotel, subject to maximum for Rs.1,200/- per day.

drafted, the Counsel shall be paid the full fees in the main case and Rs. 150/- only in each of the connected cases.

12.8.3 When substantially different affidavits are drafted in connected but uncontested cases, the Counsel shall get 1/3rd fees in the main case and Rs. 300/- in each of the connected cases.

12.8.4 When the Counsel has drafted the affidavit, petition or ground of appeal in the main uncontested case and has not drafted them in the connected but uncontested cases or the drafts in the connected but uncontested cases are substantially similar to the one in the main case, the Counsel shall get 1/3rd fees in the main case and Rs. 150/- in each of the connected cases.

12.9 The fees to the Counsel will be paid on presentation of a stamped receipt, and on submission of copy of the document drafted, if it is a drafting fee and submission of minutes or gist of proceedings, or a copy of order/judgement where it is necessary in case the claim is for appearance fee. The Counsel shall submit his bills within three months from the date on which the fees have accrued.

12.10 The fees will be payable in two stages, 1/3rd fees after substantial work has been carried out and the remaining 2/3rd fees after the case has been decided. If the high court decides that no question of law is involved only 1/3rd of the fees shall be payable to the Counsel.

12.11 Where during the pendency of a proceeding, there is a change of Counsel, a fee commensurate to the work carried out by the outgoing Counsel, not exceeding 1/3rd of the total fee admissible for the case, may be paid to him. In such an event, only the balance of fee payable in the case will be paid to the new Counsel after completion of the case.

12.12 When the Counsel does not argue the case himself but only assists the Law Officer or any other special Counsel, he will be entitled to the same fee as is payable to him as if the case has been argued by him.

12.13 No fee will be admissible for preparation of cases but the Government may consider payment of separate fee for preparation in special cases involving arduous work.

12.14 When cases argued before a single judge are referred to a division bench or to a full bench, separate fee at the prescribed rates will be paid for appearance before each bench.

13. The various terms used in these guidelines will have the following meaning

13.1. Substantial and Effective hearing

A Substantial and effective hearing is one in which either one or both the parties involved in a case are heard by the Court. If the case is mentioned and adjourned or only directions are given or only judgement is delivered by the Court, it would not constitute a substantial and effective hearing.

13.2. Uncontested case

Cases shall be deemed to be uncontested if these are withdrawn by the plaintiff/appellant or are dismissed in limine or are otherwise decided by the Court ex-parte. Covered cases shall also be deemed to be uncontested cases.
